The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 23 to Tuesday June 26. 1711.

At the Court at Kenſington, June 23.

PRESENT,

The Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Raby, and William Bromley, Eſq; Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, were, by Her Majeſty's Command, Sworn of Her Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, and took their reſpective Places at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, June 25. This Evening the Sieur de Beirie, Reſident from the Elector of Hanover, had a private Audience of Leave of Her Majeſty, to which he was Introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary St. John, and Conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Berlin, June 20. N. S. Monſieur Lith, the Muſcovite Envoy, return'd hither Yeſterday, and it is ſaid he has Orders from the Czar his Maſter to follow the King of Pruſſia into Holland, where he is to demand his Audience of Leave, and proceed from thence to Vienna with the ſame Character he had here. They write from Staden, that the Swediſh Troops in Pomerania expect to be join'd by a Detachment of ſix Regiments of Horſe, and four of Foot, out of Schonen, after which they will begin their March; but it is thought the Daniſh Fleet will be at Sea time enough to prevent the Tranſportation of thoſe Forces. Theſe Letters add, that they have Advices from Bender, importing, that his Swediſh Majeſty has very earneſtly preſs'd the Turks to March, but hitherto without any Succeſs; the Turks alledging, that they were not to begin any Operations on their ſide, 'till they were aſſured the Troops in Pomerania had ſucceeded in their Deſign of penetrating into Poland. On the other hand the King of Sweden has endeavour'd to perſwade them, that their Motions will facilitate the Enterprizes of his Forces on that ſide; of which the Turks will not be convinc'd, and this Diffidence has much retarded their intended Expedition Beſides, it appears that the Turks are not yet reſolved which way to direct their main Strength, but it is thought the Approach of the Muſcovite Forces towards the Frontiers of Walachia will ſoon determine 'em in that Point.

Hannover, June 23. N. S. They write from Warſaw of the 13th Inſtant, that the Conferences between the Czar of Muſcovy and the King of Poland being finiſh'd at Jaroſlaw, his Czariſh Majeſty immediately ſat out from thence for the Army, and commanded a Body of thirty thouſand Men to paſs the Dnieſter, in order to deſtroy the Bridges the Turks have been laying over the Danube, whilſt the grand Army march'd towards Bender with a deſign to Attack the Turks that lay encamp'd near that Place; from whence our laſt Advices, being of the 1ſt of May, aſſure us, that the Turkiſh Army did not then amount to thirty thouſand Men, but that it was daily ſtrengthen'd by Troops that were marching from all Parts to join it. But this Morning his Poliſh Majeſty's Envoy at this Court received Letters from Dreſden, importing, that a Courier from the Czar of Muſcovy was paſs'd through that City in his way to Copenhagen, whither he was ſent with an Account to his Daniſh Majeſty, of the Muſcovites having actually engaged and defeated the Turks near Bender, after which they Attack'd and Pillag'd that Place. Theſe Letters add, that the King of Poland intended to go to the Waters at Carlsbad before he return'd into Saxony, but that the Prince-Royal his Son was expected ſpeedily at Dreſden. The Earl of Peterborough, who came hither on Saturday the 20th Inſtant, has continu'd his Journey from hence to the Hague in his way to England.

From the Camp at Lens, June 29. N. S. The Armies on both ſides continue ſtill in their former Camps. We have Advice from that of the Enemy, that they have made a ſecond Detachment for Germany as conſiderable as the firſt, which were to begin their March Yeſterday, and conſiſt of their Bavarian and Walloon Troops, and the Petite Gendarmerie. The Duke of Bavaria is preparing to remove his Court from Compiegne to Namur, but whether he will reſide there, or go with his Troops to Germany, is uncertain. The Sluices at Harlebeck are repair'd, ſo that the Boats paſs there now as formerly; and Orders are given for making a new Fort to cover them from any future Inſult.

Bruſſels, July 1. N. S. According to our Letters from the Camp at Lens, dated the 29th paſt, no change has yet been made in the Situation of either Army. Several Advices from the Enemy's Frontier Places aſſure us, that a ſecond Detachment, reported to be more conſiderable than the former, is marching towards Germany, and is expected to Morrow at Beaumont. Whereupon the Germans, that have been quarter'd near this Place and Louvain, hold themſelves in a readineſs to March, and expect Orders to that purpoſe from the Prince of Savoy at the Hague, who will by this time be adviſed of the ſecond Detachment the French have made from their Army. The late Elector of Bavaria is expected in a few Days at Namur, from whence he is to go and take upon him the Command of the Forces on the Rhine.

Hague, June 30. N. S. They write from Copenhagen, that an Army of ſixty thouſand Men is to be forthwith Aſſembled in Holſtein, in order to oppoſe any Attempts of the Swediſh Forces in Pomerania. Theſe Letters add, that two Daniſh Frigats that have been lately cruiſing in the Eaſt Sea returned to Copenhagen the 15th Inſtant, and report that they had ſeen the Swediſh Fleet at Sea, conſiſting of about ſixteen Ships of the Line of Battel, and ſeveral Tenders. Our Letters from Paris adviſe, that Monſieur de Guy Trouin was ſailed from Breſt with the Squadron under his Command, and arrived at Rochell, where he is to be joined by ſome other Ships appointed to reinforce his Squadron. The King of Pruſſia ſet out the 25th from hence for Amſterdam, and returned hither the 27th in the Evening. His Pruſſian Majeſty and the Prince of Naſſau have, for the more ſpeedy